An Airbnb type of service or uber type service. But connects people in the area who have extra food. With people who do not. Ie the homeless. Or people who can cook for those without.

Could expand to clothing. Even shelter.

Could include restaurants who sign up. Give em a badge to put in their window a or signs. To show people how ethical they are. As an advertiser. (Mutual benefit) increases its visibility.

Ie they give all the extra food at the end of the day to the homeless. So instead of throwing it in the bin and it going to waste.

Organise food drives. Get some one to Collect food and deliver it to the food drives. Yeah
